

"TEACHER FEATURE"

January 19, 2012

Mrs. MaryAnn Hill

Kindergarten

Mrs. Hill has been teaching for 30 years with her entire career here at St. Stephen's School. After graduating from Camden Catholic High School she earned her B.A. from Rutgers University with a K-8 certification from Glassboro State College (now known as Rowan University).

Why did you go into teaching as a career? "I think God guided me. I was offered a job in the construction office I worked in part-time through my years in college. I was also approached by the principal at St. Stephen's School to accept a position teaching 2nd grade. The rest, as they say, is history!"

Why did you choose to teach in a Catholic school? "When I was in high school and college I would come to St. Stephen School after school to help the nun who taught 2nd grade (name?) to decorate bulletin boards, mark papers, etc.. She always talked about how much she loved the students and working with them".

What is a favorite moment you have had as a teacher? "When the students realize they can read!"

THANK YOU MRS. HILL!
